"Regrets Of Photographs" to all the ones who wait it's not too late, this is your time regrets of photographs you took inside that kill your mind with all that crazy talk about whats wrong about whats right this is your only chance to get you through tonight

[CHORUS]

you are the same as i imagined you are the one who passes by and takes away my pain
this is the beauty of my dreams exactly what it seems to be you never turn away you always comfort me

we're so concerned about the way we think we're always stuck on stupid things we're never wrong but we're never right it doesnt matter what we say tonight it's time to face it, communicate it and now the time has come to celebrate it you're finding out that this is real you can have it this is your time
