Don't try to run away
From the things you need say
My heart is an open door
Why you won't come in no more?

[CHORUS]

I can't feel what is real no more
I can't see this world like it was before
I can't feel! Can you help my soul?
I'll be only this stranger in your world

I begged you to leave this way
Imagine what was yesterday
Nothing's gonna be the same
When we go in separate ways

And why would you try to run?
Why would you try to leave your only one?
Try to run
Why would you try to make me fall in love?

[CHORUS]

I can't feel what is real no more
I can't see this world like it was before
I can't feel! Can you help my soul?
I'll be only this stranger in your world

Don't try to run away
From the things you need say
My heart is an open door
Why you won't come in no more?

And why would you try to run?
Why would you try to leave your only one?
Try to run
Why would you try to make me fall in love?

[CHORUS]

I can't feel what is real no more
I can't see this world like it was before
I can't feel! Can you help my soul?
I'll be only this stranger in your world

I begged you to leave this way
Imagine what was yesterday
Nothing's gonna be the same
When we go in separate ways

And why would you try to run?
Why would you try to leave your only one?
Try to run
Why would you try to make me fall in love?

[CHORUS]

I can't feel what is real no more
I can't see this world like it was before
I can't feel! Can you help my soul?
I'll be only this stranger in your world
