I was in a place in a place unknown smiled to hide my pain needed someone to talk to but words could not explain system overload
my mind set in stone ready to give up on it all

Prehook

But then you came along you removed the dark cloud hovering over me
it meant a brighter future for both you and me
How could I repay you
I wont stop loving you
I cant stop loving you

Hook

My Heart beats for you
My Heart beats for you
My heart beats for my heart beats for you
My heart beats for my heart beats for you
My heart beats for my heart beats for you

Used to heartbreaks can't tell when its real So numb at the heart
No longer can feel
I thought I knew how to love I thought I knew how to trust became so damaged, out of control
I was so cold

Prehook

But then you came along
How could I repay you
I wont stop loving you
I cant stop loving you
