

Dikta "Caution"

Visit "Caution" on MotoLyrics.com

I find myself wandering where to from here?
the dirt is finally settling but you disappear
I hope you hear me when I scream this is for you a tiny smile, the smallest nod you already knew

open your eyes
I'll pull you out of this, wait for it/me
open your eyes
don't sleep, keep talking to me
open your eyes

to complicate the scenery it all explodes
no lights, no houses, nothing but an open road I grab your hand and ask you please, look in my eyes a tearful smile looks back at me this never dies

the lights are blinking fast, I cannot see but twilight takes away all misery can't you see this all was just a dream?
can't you see you're still inside of me?
