this is me without sleeping a broken tree, a willow weeping is this really happening? yes, it's really happening this was not part of the plan this is me under pressure hopefully no desperate measures a day late and a dollar short lâ€™m a day late and a dollar short

I try my best
I always try my best let's just hope that it will do and if not, I'll still have you

I am free

this is me finally listening this is me finally sleeping and I hope this was all worth while
