"In Love With Myself"

in love with myself that night trying to forget/forgive blinded by the bright white light timeâ€™s up, place a bet I said what I said it made sense in my head stay quiet instead

Iâ€™m waiting for the wheels to turn Iâ€™m waiting for myself to learn still waiting for the house to burn Iâ€™m waiting still it feels alright but Iâ€™m not trying to hurt myself

Iâ€™m going backwards Iâ€™m going back to the place I left behind when I was a boy
Iâ€™m going forwards Iâ€™m going for all the things you said I had
when I was a boy

can you hear me darling? can you hear my call?
can you hear me scream and shout out?
