On the outside it all looks ok nothing in a disarray
for today
on the outside i am looking fine always laid back with peace of mind
for today

this life is like a rollercoaster ride and feels like its never gonna end but throught the bends we pretend like we're all doin ok but it's never that way

On the inside i have gone astray ive felt like i have been betrayed
for today
on the inside its all black and gray if only i just stopped and prayed
for today

and feels like its never gonna end but at the end i can depend that ill be on his wing just jesus and me (4x)
