I hope this night never stops
Though I must make it home
And now it is getting late
And our loves growing old
And one simple change of heart
We'll be calling out sick when the morning comes
And I know its irresponsible
But neither can take the fault
And I know its not impossible
But I'm backed up against the wall

So come on lady
Dance the night away
And maybe just tonight
We can dance in the rain
And one simple change of heart
We'll be having regrets when the morning comes
And I know its irresponsible
But neither can take the fault
And I know its not impossible
But I'm backed up against the wall

Come on lady, won't save me
Won't you dance with me
And when the dancing gets crazy
We can let it be
It comes and it goes and it changes
We know thats the truth
And when the morning comes
Which one of us is gonna play that fool
And when the morning comes
Which one of us is gonna make it through

So come on lady
Won't we call it a day
I've been so busy
I think I need a break
And one simple change of heart
We'll forget it all when the morning comes
And I know its irresponsible
But neither can take the fault
And I know its not impossible

But I'm backed up against the wall

Come on lady, won't you save me
Won't you dance with me
And when the dancing gets crazy
We can let it be
It comes and it goes and it changes
We know that's the truth
And when the morning comes
Which one of us is gonna play that fool
And when the morning comes
Which one of us is gonna make it through
And when the morning comes
Which one of us is gonna play that fool
And when the morning comes
Which one of us is gonna make it through
