[Intro]

N*ggas talk that real sh*t
I don't even know what's real no more
These mothaf*ckas nowadays
Just be saying sh*t
A lot of sh*t going on in the world
And these n*ggas talkin' about they real n*ggas

[Verse 1]

Uh I never been the type to judge n*ggas
F*ck, n*ggas look at me like I lucked up n*gga
But this sh*t is getting harder Got a stomach full of liquor and I'm thinking about my daughter
I should be a-f*cking-shamed of myself Baby mama struggling, I put the f*cking blame on myself
I should just grab my gat, and f*cking aim at myself
I did this on my own, you n*ggas came with the help
So I dis-include and no I'm not dissing you
But in the interview, I clearly said I don't remember you, lil n*gga
You ain't nothing but a lil n*gga Just me and my .45, is quite clear that you came full of n*ggas
Uh, I know that bullsh*t gangsta talk
But I don't ever get involved if I ain't involved
What you portraying dawg, blowing money
F*ck that, I'm trying to teach my child how to save it all

[Hook x2]

So if I vent to you, tell me can you see yourself making assumptions, making assumptions?
Contradicting my sh*t from the outside,
making a judgment, making a judgment

[Verse 2]

I guess I'm just like everybody else, living in this world with no help
No guidance, no self-love, until I met drugs
Gangstas being imitated, by internet thugs, Shrugs

No hugs, just guns, just fun
He bust one, retaliate on my loved one
It ain't worth it, need a 9 to 5
It ain't working, not for me
So I'm doing it for a strange purpose
I ain't too focused on the "getting around,"
The pussy will come, I just can't be sitting around Looking around, missed it when it could've been now
As good as they come, and got lost in the crowd
That's a sad story
See n*ggas just wanna hustle and rap
Rap music got b*tch n*ggas in love with the trap
Me, I got that sh*t to make the government mad Pussy n*gga, how thuggin' is that?

[Hook x2]

So if I vent to you, tell me can you see yourself making
assumptions, making assumptions?
Contradicting my sh*t from the outside,
making a judgment, making a judgment
