"Q & A"

Visit "Q & A" on MotoLyrics.com

I was into questions and you gave me the answers
Answer all the questions for the cheaters and guessers
Probably not the best advice I'd give you

We were pointed to the path and told not to worry
We'll probably be confronted, but we'll stick to the story
Kicking at the dirt and the rocks and the bad news

So lets take it to the edge of the next town over There's a distance we can measure but it's better not to
And if anything should happen to me don't you stop
You just make it to the edge of the next town over repeat

Heading down the hatch of the Orchid Station
Who are we to stop Ben?
As they're moving through the air to an unknown island
Help them to see

Live together, die alone
(If we can't live together, we're going to die alone)

I almost called your name
Feeling sober for a change
And I almost called your name
Feeling sober for a change
