"Your Own Device"

Visit "Your Own Device" on MotoLyrics.com

Who knows you better than your own device?
Programmed and set to repeat, a silent film
Projecting image through light
Our cells have burned from attention

And we almost survive
We almost survive
And we almost survive, through it

Who knows you better than your own device?
Programmed and set to repeat, a silent film
Projecting image through light
Our cells have burned from attention to life

And we almost survive
We almost survive
And we almost survive, through it

Let yourself out, let yourself out (x4)

Go outside, let yourself out (x4)

When I am empty please dispose of me properly (x3)

Go outside, let yourself out (x2)
