Break out of the sky
Wait for it to come alive
See it in her face
She's trying hard to break the pain
She let her emotions go
She couldn't try to keep them close
Inside herself
I'm sure she knows
The truth behind the muse...

(She's not made to endure this pain...)

Run, run, run
I've watched her fall and
She's not done
She's just begun and
She's ready to blow this hole
She's not taking any no's
Take, take, take
That's all they do
She gives them more
But who gives to her now?
She's on the ride
She's going far
She's just another lonely star

So now she's lost her mind
She thinks she's gone and petrified
She's looking for someone to be by her side
I couldn't keep her happy then
I tried to but I failed again
We've all got problems now and then
But she can't solve them!

(I'm not made to endure this pain...)

Run, run, run
I've watched her fall and
She's not done
She's just begun and
She's ready to blow this hole

She's not taking any no's
Take, take, take
That's all they do
She gives them more
But who gives to her now?
She's on the ride
She's going far
She's just another lonely star

Run, run, run
I've watched her fall and
She's not done
She's just begun and
She's ready to blow this hole
She's not taking any no's
Take, take, take
That's all they do
She gives them more
But who gives to her now?
She's on the ride
She's going far
She's just another lonely star
