It's not safe to assume that inside of you
Is a heart that's crying
It's not hard to get thrown off at the site of you
Cause I want you badly
And if it turns out the way I plan
Then these hearts will undersand that

I will not take this for granted
I'm not safer now...

There's something I see in you
I can't help that I might like you
I can't say it's not right
Only to be safe

It's not safe to assume that you are
Secretly calling me inside
It's not safe that I think that you really Want me inside your life
I don't know what you are trying to tell me
But I think somewhere that maybe, it's right

But I won't take this for granted
I think you should know...

There's something I see in you
I can't help that I might like you
I can't say it's not right
Only to be safe

There's something I see in you
I can't help that I might like you
I can't say it's not right
Only to be...
There's something I see in you
I can't help that I might like you
I can't say it's not right
Only to be safe
