Feel it in the air
Trying to get over there
But we can't forget the home that you took from us'
You're so hard to trust
And oh, trying to find a way
To keep it all the same
But you've walked right in and ruined what we've got
No that's not hot

And we're tired of making promises that we can't fulfill...

On the other side I walked out of line
You never had a chance
Falling under pressure
Falling to an end

So now you've got a new game
And no, we don't wanna play
I've set myself above you
Now you're like everyone else who just want to mess up our lives
Well keep in mind that your little tides are just wasting time

Let us live...

On the other side I walked out of line
You never had a chance
Falling under pressure
Falling to an end

Without the mask I've got you pinned around the floor
You find me and take me away
I've got my advantages
Oh no, you'll say

On the other side I walked out of the line
To find you hidden there

Explain to me
Explain to me

Explain to me...
