See some people tell you who you are
Tell you who you ain't
Tell you who what you can
Tell you what you can't
Say you're a sinner
Say you're a saint
Tell you who to love
Tell you who to hate
Tell you when to go
Tell you when to wait, Wait!

Sometimes I wish I could Take Off

Well I guess that I'm a rhythm for the bass and the treble
I'm heavy metal I will never ever settle
Maybe I'm in pain
Maybe I'm insane
So I crank it up and take it to another level, yeah!
So I change it up and move on my own schedule, yeah!
Now I'm always on time
Not searching for something I ain't gonna find
Not hurtin for something that I can't heal
Not working on something that I can't build
Not working for something that I can't feel
And I'm just tryna stay real
But have you ever felt off track?
Have you ever felt held back?

When people tell you who you are
Tell you who you ain't
Tell you what you can
Tell you what you can't
Say you a sinner
Say you a saint
Tell you who to love
Tell you who to hate
Tell you when to go
Tell you when to wait, Wait!

Sometimes I wish I could Take Off

Yeah, Ever wish that you could take off?
Ever wish that you could lift off?
Ever wish that you could just fly?
Ever wish that you could get high?
Sky mode
And I wanna see it all
No blind fold
Like 20/20 vision
When I come to the decision
To focus my own attention on the steering wheel
Cause this is real
And this is my road
Not yours
Not hers
Not his
Not theirs
Who cares
When you step out of your circle
Try and show emâ€™ what you got
Everybody still try to put you in a box

People tell you who you are
Tell you who you ainâ€™ t
Tell you what you can
Tell you what you canâ€™ t
Say you a sinner
Say you a saint
Tell you who to love
Tell you who to hate
Tell you when to go
Tell you when to wait, Wait!
