Cause there's, there's just blind sighted faith
And I can't relate!
And all your thought and all your dreams
Are fallen into a basket, and washed away at sea
This isn't how you made it out.

You say time is a healer, but I can't forget
Cause I live my life full of regret
This isn't worth, you made it out.

Cause there's, there's just blind sighted faith
And I can't relate!
And all your thought and all your dreams
Are fallen into a basket, and washed away at sea
This isn't how you made it out.

You say time is a healer, but I can't forget
Cause I live my life full of regret
This isn't worth, you made it out.

Cause there's, there's just blind sighted faith
And I can't relate!
And all your thought and all your dreams
Are fallen into a basket, and washed away at sea
This isn't how you made it out.

Boy, you're waiting for all your chance
Open up this door, you make it last!

Cause there's, there's just blind sighted faith
And I can't relate!
And all your thought and all your dreams
Are fallen into a basket, and washed away at sea
This isn't how you made it out.
Cause there's, there's just blind sighted faith
