"Perfect Timing"

It seems like a long term dream with a good thing constantly in
Your drive is paved with gold when you expected wood chippings
As soon as I realized where my loyalties lie
I needed back in

(CHORUS)

Do you believe
Do you believe I'm smiling
It's perfect timing we are shining
I want you to see
I want you to see I smile
It's perfect timing we are shining

I've never felt like this before
I need your face of that I'm sure
You make the world worthwhile
I promise that I'll try harder
With eyes I could dive right into
A face I could kiss right through
I'm on top of the world - thank you for being mine

And I thank you for being away 'cause I know what I've lost now

I've never felt like this before
I need your face of that I'm sure
You make the world worthwhile
I promise that I'll try harder
With eyes I could dive right into
A face I could kiss right through
I'm on top of the world - thank you for being mine

(CHORUS)
