Bake potato

It's so necessary
When my nerves get cooked
You keep me rocking on steady
When my soul gets shook

Ooh, you make a good thing better, baby
Take me to your sacred ground
Make me wanna move all around
Make it sizzle

Bake potato 'cause it feels so good
Bake potato just the way I like it
Honey, you're my only appetite
Come on and bake potato on a cold, cold night

Everybody needs a sanctuary
Everybody needs to scream
Sidewalks are violent, Mother Nature's being challenged
Show you a place where we can let off some steam

Want you getting under my skin, baby
Want you warming up my blood
Take me for a roll in the mud
Make it sizzle

Bake potato 'cause it feels so good
Bake potato just the way I like it
Honey, you're my only appetite
Come on and bake potato on a cold, cold night

Oh, when the wind howls
When the rain comes down
When the hurricane growls
I wanna come inside for the baked potato

Ooh, you make a good thing better, baby
Want you warming up my blood, please
Take me for a roll in the mud
Make it sizzle when you go

Bake potato 'cause it feels so good
Bake potato just the way I like it
Honey, you're my only appetite
Come on and bake potato on a cold, cold night

Bake potato 'cause it feels so good
Bake potato just the way I like it
Honey, you're my only appetite
Come on and bake potato on a cold, cold night

Bake potato 'cause it feels so good
Bake potato just the way I like it
Honey, you're my only appetite
Come on and bake potato on a cold, cold night

Bake potato 'cause it feels so good
Bake potato just the way I like it
Honey, you're my only appetite
Come on and bake potato on a cold, cold night

Bake potato 'cause it feels so good
Bake potato just the way I like it
