Christmas bells chime, sweet and appealing.
Hearts beat in time, hold on to the feeling.

On that day once a year all the world comes alive
with the joy every face is revealing.
And all eyes look at you with a kindness so true,
why can't we just hold on to the feeling?

Christmas bells chime, sweet and appealing.
Hearts beat in time, hold on to the feeling.

For the child in a manger we cherish this day
and in reverence so many are kneeling.
Every spirit is high and we look to the sky
hoping we can hold onto the feeling.

Christmas bells chime, sweet and appealing.
Hearts beat in time, hold on to the feeling.

That Christmas feeling is good,
so everyone should
just try to hold on to it!
That Christmas feeling is right,
so with all of your might,
hold on, you can do it!

Christmas bells chime, sweet and appealing.
Hearts beat in time, hold on to the feeling.
