Driving around Forking out the dollars in a filthy rich Southern town Driving away
I made my penance and now I float away
Now I feel so free
that I'll never leave

I filled the hole you dug for me
Never liked them rusted nails I've got an understanding of what it's like to free yourself

Driving through this fucked up society has broken all of your dreams too Driving away
I've done my sentence and now I float away
Now I feel so free
I'll never leave

I filled the hole you dug for me
Never liked those rusted nails I've got an understanding of
from you

Now I feel so free that I'll never leave
