In my dreams I should close my eyes only to hide once in my life

But at night when I'm so alone the shadows catch my soul

A disease that I'd like to stop Far away and my feet can't walk

It must be like an evil force that keeps me hanging on (You, you, you, you, you)

You drink my tears but at least
let me rest in peace
And I'm trying to see beyond light
all these memories

You drink my tears but at least
let me rest in peace
And I'm trying to see beyond light
all these memories

Set me free
Set me free
Set me free
Please, help me to Rest in peace

There's no witness around to me that have seen all this mess I'm in

No regrets, no turning back Delusions in my mind

Always wanting to work things out Always when they look pretty bad

Now my heart needs to fly away to have a better die (I don't, I don't want you)

Nevermind, it's too late for sorry Teardrops are replaced by worries
In this grave I'm afraid, I'm concerned I'm so scared to believe that I'm running out time
These worms are gonna eat me alive
Yeah

I don't want you, I don't, I don't want you (Too late for me, too late for me too late for me, whoa)
I don't want you, I don't, I don't want you (Too late for me, too late for me
too late for me, whoa)
You, you, you, you, you, you [x2]

You drink my tears but at least
let me rest in peace
And I'm trying to see beyond light
all these memories

I don't want you, I don't, I don't want you (Too late for me, too late for me
too late for me, whoa)
I don't want you, I don't, I don't want you (Too late for me, too late for me
too late for me, whoa)
You, you, you, you, you, you [x2]
