so when i see, what I see
I just can't, can't believe how our shortfalls can shape our motives they're turning our mistakes into our vultures so if we EAT--- or if we starve
we still gonna work and do a good ass job cuz' we've come to far
to let night's escape
it's that price we pay when we fight for days hot sun on his face, a glimmer in his eye blue blocks cocked he's a little too high-- no problem-- you see it all comes down to a tally of the minutes

either column evens out
--so we--- sip something, have sex, and get money with a smile on the face even though it's getting ugly --- and we tippin' up cups for the brainstorm meeting of the minds wish the meeting might rain more london town or portland OR keep that shit wet for the snappy porsche the cold hearted--- emotions bogarted
--- the two step rep just pays retarded (octave down) so who gone love what they can't see you got a vision but it isn't one they want you to be 91' style rap - I'm new jackin' the beat cold sippin' on a cold two-eleven it's cheap so what-I sip that hard and go way harder my liver's looking at me like I'm fucking his daughter my 40's looking like he wants to kill him regardless but we live another night, just to fight in the morning Fuck off-
we patch the pain and mind the gap
- the everyday struggle just to find that map I sip up, and lean back toke up those green backs mean a little something different to the people getting taxed

so if we EAT--- or if we starve

pragmaticly approach they -- all warren buffet it ---fraggle rock we get it in where the muppets is they play gorgs, we ball b-jorn borg we are, what we are entrenched in our hoards we live where we comfy---- make believe that we living bigger lives- but we love our lil' pumpkins
---lay-up lines with the lies no dunking they don't like stunts, cuz' the stunts are stunting no growth, no time, no coach they wanna settle down with a check Kukoc leave a little better than they came, nouveau when they only needed drunken chicken noodles for the soul til' that scale reads Huskythe XXL, tall - polo rugby
-I don't need it, I want it, I need days
-till I'm anywhere I want, I'll deliver so have faith when the clock strikes (hey) we gon' blog that (HEY) We gon sip something hard enough to put us on our (AYYYY)
eyes wide open with my mind on some change and the nights go fast, so we fight for the days
