(Hook)

You may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope someday you'll join us
And the world will be as one

Young kid dreaming on the block and he's buzzin
No one really thought he kill a beat out of dozens Made a lot of songs but no one really fuckin loved em'
Failing on everything exposed him to public Workin day and night for music until it got him
That the only problem was that the haters woulda stopped him
But nawh he just kept on moving forward till it happened
Got a deal with tox sick now getting shit on standin
Now he's dedicating all his time and skills to rappin'
Under achieving' no one ever felt to clap him
What is there to do for a young kid like him?
Never disrespecting but he always fighting in Schools in his house in every moment that you diss
Him but he's never wanting you to fall in shit
Believing that he's doing something worthy of his life Instead of sittin' down and givin' up in all his dreams at night nice

(Hook)

You may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope someday you'll join us
And the world will be as one

Never started drama but he's always in attention He's looking out for homies but he's always in detention
Had a lot of friends, but they always used to doubt him Now that he's getting blowin' gettin' known bitches on em'
He's earning all the props that he always used to think od
He's known for rapping like wanna be inside his sinkin'

love

Now that his mind is getting straighter and the loss degrades

Hate is not snappin like aggravated alligators
Used to breakin' up the tolerance with his teachers Failing all his classes cuz the music is his preacher Writing what he's thinkin' and he's rhymin' all his struggles

It's all he's doing cause he's used to living in a bubble
All the shit he's going through and yet moving forward
Such an inspiration part of life in his orders Started from the pennies now he's getting all the quarters
Motivation to his haters givin' em the coldest shoulders
I told ya!

(Hook x2)

You may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope someday you'll join us
And the world will be as one
