"Revolution"

You take me down, put my face on the ground feeling the rage and the power Broken bones, broken dreams, death on the line freedom and justice must be for everyone

You're ont the top of the mountain
I'm on the slope trying to survive everyday life
this time the people will stand up and fight!

With a sword and a scale
I'm gonna vanquish the reign of the deaf
so hear me now! hear the people shout:
"this revolution will take you down!"

You're turn is now

To the north, south, the east and the west the flames of justice are burning your harvest
I now you won't put yourself on the line
You know for sure that this victory will be mine

You're ont the top of the mountain
I'm on the slope trying to survive everyday life
this time the people will stand up and fight!

With a sword and a scale
I'm gonna vanquish the reign of the deaf
so hear me now! hear the people shout:

You're in your heaven
I'm in your hell
You've got salvation
I'm just a damned
This is your story
I lose the game
This revolution
Will be the end

You're ont the top of the mountain
I'm on the slope trying to survive everyday life
this time the people will stand up and fight!

With a sword and a scale
I'm gonna vanquish the reign of the deaf
so hear me now! hear the people shout:

Will take you down!
