15 she was a punker
Didn't know about anyone
When the evening comes around
Like the sun she's going down
When the midnight hour strikes
The man is reading you your rights
You think you're so big time
When you're skulling through the night
He takes your hand and puts it on his thing
Your brother came and said you had to leave
[Chorus:]
They don't like the way you walk by yourself
She don't like the way they follow her around
They can find you hangin' out upstairs
But we don't want you any more
15 she was a punker
Didn't know about anyone
Friends know where she is found
Sand her home before the sun goes down
She's Sublime's biggest fan
She's got stickers on her daddy's van
Smokin' pot you couldn't hang
You've done 'em all
Now feel the pain
