The more I danced with angels
More evil I became
God never smiled on me
But I bet I made him laugh
Put your tongue in my mouth
Taste the pain inside
That's the only thing that keeps me alive

I get frustrated everyday
There's gotta be a better way
Can't seem to change the course of fate
I gotta find a better place

Come out and fight
Today is a good day to die

Wonder if I lived life right
I know I had some fun
But I hate myself when I face mistakes
How much pressure can one blood pump take
Before it can't feel anything

I know I may be a fool
But I'm no damn fool for you
I know what eats me up inside
The past, your eyes, this life

Come out and fight
Today is a good day to die

Sorry's just a word, it don't change a thing
River of regret growing
Flowin' through my veins
You can't take vengeance on fate
You can't take vengeance on fate

God damn karma creepin' up
Bites back so hard
Life a bitch deal with it

If it would end right here today

That'd be fine I say O.K.
I still got this thing called life to face
No one said it'd be easy

Come out and fight
Today is a good day to die
Listen to the indian cry
Today is a good day to die
