"Head Lights"

I'm losing tolerance day by day
Your mind makes taxi drivers look sane
You wanna see me cracked
Ripped apart, tied to the tracks
I hope your dreams don't come true

Like a deer caught in headlights
Crucified on a cross of spite
I'll know a place called hurt
When you get what you deserve

You said I made a fool of you (fuck you)
And better change my point of view
You wanna make me pay
For not seeing things your way
Ignore those voices in your head

Deserve you deserve get what you deserve

I know I've got a lot of problems
I don't believe in perfection
How could you curse me
How could you want the worse for me
I just don't get it do you?
