Rival from the first till last Monday
She'll make you sick
Try not to make a mess of things
She'll make you sick

She walks in through the wrong door
And turns you into someone you were bound to be Sally's got a big surprise
And I'll sell it to the neighbours' wife for a million and for more now

She makes you sad and quarantaine
And Oreilys handshake is all that I mean
I'm all and into quarantaine
I'm all and into quarantaine

Quiet room and a private hallway
It's been a while for everyone
But I don't know how to deal with this Hand in more like 'as can be' and all of this
And all of this is going to an ending where
She makes you sad and quarantaine
And Oreiliys handshake is all that I mean

I'm all and into quarantaine
I'm all and into quarantaine
