Don't be alarmed, don't be afraid and don't be sad
Don't complicate my life with rules and stupid fads
False hopes and only dreams of winning lotteries
Only pollute my head of a distant reality

[Chorus:]
I want one status in this world
I want just one girl
Just give me happy memories
No catastrophes...

No one ever said it would be free
Expectations high, but never care if they succeed
Just a simple life no need for your royalty
I could spend all my time with obsessions every night
A simple love and just my will for sacrifice

[Chorus]

You can never change me-
You can wish and I can wonder why
People always wanna tell me-
You'd be better if you only try
Vicodine and cheap red win-
Still won't clear my weakest eye
Pound your faith into my head so I can spit it out again.

[Chorus]
