Is it true that
I no longer exist
Whenever I'm around you?
There's more to this
You got style
Yeah you know just
What it takes
But you will never back down
You will keep it straight
(And I say)

I bet you are, I bet you are
Sweet Lorraine
I bet you had more than enough
I bet you are, I bet you are
Sweet Lorraine
I bet you are

Is it true what they say about
The mess that you left
When you left
There's more to this

On the side, you got a million things
To cope with
But you'll never hide, you will never hide
And therefor

These are the days of confusion
I need to live them...
These guys from our past
I should forgive them

There's no need to worry and I know that you never did
