"Alone"

I don't want to be alone anymore
I want to take you home.
I want to take it all.
Yeah, We can pretend that the night never ends.
That's how I like it.
Dance!
Like there's no tomorrow.
Dance!
Like tonight is your last night.
Dance!
If hearts are hollow
Then you don't have to take a chance
We can just dance.
No one understands like you.
I'll do anything you want me to.
We can pretend that there's nobody there.
It's just me and you.
Feel the touch of another
Feel the heat of a brand new love affair
We can pretend that the night never ends
O, that's how I like it.
Dance!
Like there's no tomorrow.
Dance!
Like tonight is your last night.
Dance!
If hearts are hollow
Then you don't have to take a chance
We can just dance.
