CHORUS:

Riding a wave, chasing the sun, only gets better when you're with someone
Someone that you love who takes your breath away, we're wild and we're young, we're living for today

VERSE 1:

Tell me where you come from, you look like your hope's gone
I can tell you need someone today, Get into the rhythm, forget all your problems, Why not let the waves wash them all away
I know you came for the weekend, but girl theres no way you're leaving, this is where it begins, feels like we're stars in a movie, I'm Romeo you're my Julie, Just stop and take it all in.

CHORUS:

Riding a wave, chasing the sun, only gets better when you're with someone
Someone that you love who takes your breath away,
we're wild and we're young, we're living for today
The World Is Ours

VERSE 2:

Drive up to the canyon, check out all the mansions, pretend we're in a phantom that'd be cool, Then back down to the ocean, swim out to the dolphins, we can have it all just me and you.
I know you came for the weekend, but girl theres no
way you're leaving, this is where it begins, feels like
we're stars in a movie, I'm Romeo you're my Julie, Just stop and take it all in.

CHORUS:

Riding a wave, chasing the sun, only gets better when you're with someone
Someone that you love who takes your breath away,
we're wild and we're young, we're living for today
The World Is Ours

BRIDGE:

Lets get lost in the fire light, there's only us tonight, we can talk from dusk till dawn. Swim free in a starlit sea, we will always be, forever young.

CHORUS:

Riding a wave, chasing the sun, only gets better when you're with someone
Someone that you love who takes your breath away,
we're wild and we're young, we're living for today.
