Rip the pages from my bible
Just to feel when I was alive
And the key to my survival is a quiet in my sides tonight
No no no no
No no no no

I don't want nobody to save me
It's just easier this way
And all the heroes want to cage me
And I just want to fly away

The endless echoes of the lonely
Only seem to know my name
There is no such thing as being home free
Cuz you can't go back the same
No no no no no
No no no no no

Ohhh Ohhh Ohhh Home free
Repeat X2
