You, you lay the chance into my hands
Forgive me if i misunderstood you
I, I play the cards and lost the game
And all I can do now is pray for you.

I can't forget when you held my head
We use to hold our souls together
But now I'm standing here all alone
And I can get myself to scream again
This feelings that are holding me down
Are burning in the depth of my soul
Your world is high above in the sky
And when I ever get to feel again

..How..

How can I love again?
How can I dream again?
How can I hold you?

..How..

How can I love again?
How can I dream again?
How can I touch you?
