What do I need to do, I really don't know
Teach me, how to get to your heart
This bright of smile
I haven't seen before, I guess I'm nervous like this
Oh just hold me now and kiss me now
At this moment think of us only
I've only thought of you the entire day
Did you know the way you give me laughter
Is only by you?
I only dream of you
Because in this world I only see you
Did you know the way you give me pain
Is done solely by you?
I need you so much
What do I need to do, I really don't know
Teach me, how to get to your heart
This bright of smile
I haven't seen before, I guess I'm nervous like this
Oh just hold me now and kiss me now
At this moment think of us only
I've only thought of you the entire day
Did you know the way you give me laughter
Is only by you?
I only dream of you
Because in this world I only see you
Did you know the way you give me pain
Is done solely by you?
I need you so much
In eager hopes of desire, I've waited all this time just for you
You were my dream of course
From now on I'll become your entire dream come true
I've only thought of you the entire day
Did you know the way you give me laughter
Is only by you?
I only dream of you
What should I do, you already know
