Look to the sky now, look to the water
The earth below down
Gravity pulls me, I can't resist you
There is no question, there is no warning
You spin me round, darkness is falling
There's only one way out.

You know you reel me in
You know you pull me closer
You know you keep me warm
Tonight,

[Chorus:]
Miles away, I can look down from space
Know where I've been
Know where I am and where I'm going.
Lost at sea, I see you shine for me
You are my lighthouse,
You are my lighthouse.

Millions of stars in one constellation
Could guide me home
You are the reason, you are my calling
Longing to hold, longing to have you
To myself, you are the one thing keepin' me going now You're the air I breathe, you're the voice inside my head
You're the fire inside my heart.

[Chorus:]
Miles away, I can look down from space
Know where I've been
Know where I am and where I'm going.
Lost at sea, I see you shine for me
You are my lighthouse,
You are my lighthouse.

Yeah, when my world comes crashing down,
I can find my way out,
You are there to light the way
Shining so bright

[Chorus: (x2)]

Miles away, I can look down from space
Know where I've been
Know where I am and where I'm going.
Lost at sea, I see you shine for me
You are my lighthouse,
You are my lighthouse.

Look to the sky now, look to the water!
