Hear you Breathing

Im stepping outside into the night
My greatest hope burning deep inside
Im tryna find and grasp some part of him
That heart and soul that i really miss

Just to feel you near
Sometime i think your here
Ive emerged into a mental state of mind
To take this last breath
Before I start falling
Do you know what i'd give just to be with you...

Chorus

As Im drowning I could feel
Something pleading me to come back
Cause I can hear you breathing
Slowly breathing
Like you've never left me alone
As I feel your breath on my shoulder
I can feel a part of you
But no matter where I am
Because with you I am alive

Baby at times...

I feel you surround me...
And it hurts so much that I can barely breathe...
Cause every night that I lie awake
As I close my eye trying to remake
Of what use to be your face
No...

Chorus

I don't really wanna be with you
Rp
In this world if I cant be with you
But I really wanna be with you
What i'd give just to be with you
I would kill I would die
Just to be with you...

Chorus
