I was sleeping with my heart tucked under my pillow
Looking at the world through a blacked out window
The last one left she broke my heart into a million pieces
That girl isn't you, no...

You hit my heart got a boombox feeling
Knocked me out now I'm staring at the ceiling
My colours faded, she brought them back to life
You let me in and it feels so good inside, yeah

Give me you heart girl I'm not gonna let go
Out of the dark I'm gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
You came my way and now

Give me you heart girl I'm not gonna let go
Out of the dark I'm gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
I saw your face and now

There's no more black and white
For the first time, first time
Open up my eyes
And I'm not colourblind
And I'm not colourblind

Chilling in my sunset laughing till the sun's out
JJ Price Tag playing at the background
I got a feeling flying through the sky
That everything is gonna be just fine

Give me you heart girl I'm not gonna let go
Out of the dark I'm gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
You came my way and now

Give me you heart girl I'm not gonna let go
Out of the dark I'm gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
I saw your face and now

There's no more black and white
For the first time, first time
Open up my eyes
And I'm not colourblind
And I'm not colourblind

Give me your heart girl I'm not gonna let go
Out of the dark I'm gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
You came my way and now

Give me your heart girl I'm not gonna let go
Out of the dark I'm gonna love you retro
My lonely days were countless
I saw your face and now

There's no more black and white
For the first time, first time
Open up my eyes
And I'm not colourblind (no...)
And I'm not colourblind
And I'm not colourblind
