Pre Chorus:

Everytime I close my eyes
You're the only one runs on my mind
and everytime that you are near i can't understand the things that i feel

Verse1:

There are times I think of you and the day when i first saw you There's something left at me
And my heart really needs to know

Verse2:

I tried to understand
Cause' even now that you were gone
All these things keep coming through
And I still ain't got a clue

Chorus:

For every time I close my eyes
You're the only one runs on my mind
and every time that you are near
i can't understand the things that i feel

Verse3:

Each time I see your smile
All my worries fades in just a while How could I tell these things I feel
If my heart beats fast each time you're near

Chorus:

And every time I close my eyes
You're the only one runs on my mind and every time that you are there
i can't understand the things that i feel

Chorus2:

They said it's love
Cause every time I sleep at night

You're always on my sight
You're the only girl I always see in my dreams
Wishing you're here beside me every time

Coda:

So I wrote this song I'm playin' for you
To tell you the things that my mind keep thinkin' off
But now I knew
I'm falling in love with you
For all these things keep comin' through

Repeat Chorus1 & Chorus2:
