Like a fixture down on Main Street, she stood there all year long
With a tin cup and tambourine, singin' Christmas songs Folks thought she was crazy but they loved to hear her sing
Drop some money in her cup and she'd shake that tambourine

And they called her 'Christmas Carol'
There's not a Christmas song she couldn't sing
I remember Christmas Carol
With her snow white hair and a beat up tambourine

She wore that same old ragged coat all the year around
Lived all alone in a little shack just outside of town She'd stand there singin' 'Jingle Bells' in the heat of the summertime
Yes, everyday was Christmas in Carol Johnson's mind

And they called her 'Christmas Carol'
There's not a Christmas song she couldn't sing
I remember Christmas Carol
With her snow white hair and a beat up tambourine

Well I can still remember that twinkle in her eye
'Cause Carol kept a secret from the people passin' by
That secret was a mystery they talked about so long
How each Christmas Eve those gifts showed up Outside the children's home

That was 40 years ago, or 50, I believe
And still the toys keep showin' up each year on Christmas Eve
I wonder if we'll ever know just who took up the cause
Is it still Christmas Carol or is it Santa Claus?

And they called her 'Christmas Carol'
There's not a Christmas song she couldn't sing
I remember Christmas Carol
With her snow white hair and a beat up tambourine
