Little One

By the Oak Ridge Boys

She sat by the fireside
Till her eyes became too heavy
And she wandered off in dreams with elves at play.
Daddy found her sleeping
And took her up to bed
Where she would spend the night in Santa's flying sleigh

Christmas was a whisper in her ear
Sounds that only children's hearts can hear.

Little one. In the morning when you wake up
You'll find your every dream has taken form They'll be joy. Christmas day will come to life because of you
You are love, little one.

Mary lay and pondered
Till her eyes became too heavy
And she finally found the rest she'd struggled for Joseph sat in silence and watched the baby sleeping
And wondered what the future held in store.

Angel voices whispered in his ear
Reaching down he drew the baby near.

Little One. In the morning when you wake up
The world will find that God has taken form There'll be joy. And the earth will have new life because of you
You are love, Little One

Little One. In the morning when you wake up
The world will find that God has taken form
There'll be joy. And the earth will have new life because
of you
You are love, Little One

Little one. In the morning when you wake up

The world will find that God has taken form
There'll be joy. And the earth will have new life because
of you
You are love, Little One
