Trying to love two women is like a ball and chain
Trying to love two women is like a ball and chain
Sometimes the pleasure ain't worth the strain
It's a long old grind and it tires your mind

Trying to hold two women is tearing me apart
Trying to hold two women is tearing me apart
One's got my money, the other's got my heart
It's a long old grind and it tires your mind

When you try to please two women, you can't please
yourself
When you try to please two women, you can't please
yourself

At best it's only half good, a man can't stock two shelves
It's a long old grind and it tires your mind

Trying to love two women is like a ball and chain
Trying to love two women is like a ball and chain
Sometimes the pleasure ain't worth the strain
It's a long old grind and it tires your mind

Trying to love two women is like a ball and chain
Trying to love two women is like a ball and chain
Sometimes the pleasure ain't worth the strain
It's a long old grind and it tires your mind
It's a long old grind and it tires your mind
