"Hell's Heroes"

My first love, he went away
He wrote a letter
And he hit the grave
He said "I don't believe that anything
Lasts forever"
Was curious to burn up
He wondered if he was man enough
Said "I don't believe that anything lasts forever"

I cry and I still cry

Hell's got my hero
Maybe I'll fall in

I find it hard to stay awake
The world's bed is a tempting place
But I don't believe that anything lasts forever

I don't think I'll burn up
I don't think I'm man enough
I don't believe that anything lasts forever

I cry and I still cry

Hell's got my hero
Maybe I'll fall in
Down to hell with all my heroes
Is that what love is
Is that what love is
Is that what love is

Sometimes I get lost in the morning
Sometimes I get lost at night
Sometimes I throw up in the evening
Sometimes I throw up in the night
