

O.A.R. "That's Ok"

Visit "That's Ok" on MotoLyrics.com

i don't know much about politics well i don't much about the lunatics and the sticks that's ok cause i got to pray for my friends and my family every day
well that's ok

well i don't much about love and hate i don't know know much about the inebriated state in the state but that's ok cause i've got to pray for my friends and my family every day every day and that's ok but if you don't know about the deals you might not think it's all so nice but nice isn't nice no more nice doesn't come knocking at your front door no more it might not attack you front it might come up in your back just once but it's ok in a terrible way life might treat you in a different way but next time walk out that front door look to the left, but don't look to the right no more cause over there, where, under the chair there might be a little kitten not afraid and not scared they not scared

they not scared, no that's ok

i don't know much about politics
well i don't much about the lunatics and the sticks that be ok because i love to pray for my friends and my family every day
they might not know my way but they don't have to know what i do every day that's just ok

Visit O.A.R. page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

