Well, in the end, my friend, we will all be together again
Clutching onto my hand, in a valley we'll stand, just living again
And in a while we'll smile, march on another mile On hallowed hills, attached to the land we'll be still No one's ever gonna say a thing
And we'll be together, together again
Taking off to the city on down

Just a while ago my soul was confused, amused at what it did not know
Days went by, and amusement cried, I decide to let My soul fly on by itself , pick happiness up and bring it back to the shelf
We'll be okay one day, in this valley we'll stay
No more moving on I knew it was right here all along Won't have to hold your crown, no more looking around Just holding you tight in the city on down

Just a while ago my soul was confused, amused at what
it did not know
But days went by and amusement cried
I decide it's time, I got to move on now
But I was so scared
I was frightened, somewhat enlightened
So I changed shoes
Now I walk through a valley of color much better than the other Way I did not know, but now we can be united Miracle, miracle sighted, and I'm pulling it in I know by now we can all walk together at a regular speed
Do you dare to be excited , are you aware somewhat delighted?
Are you aware somewhat delighted?
At what you did not know
Let's take it to the city on down
