Something about you got me hypnotized
I can't think straight baby with you on my mind Cuz its gets getting hard to figure out where we begin!
And where we end! Nothing's forever but we'll be alright

I get that cold sweat, quick step in my feet
You get that pink cheek, cant speak when you see me
I think that we should get down

You might be thinking I'm just wasting time Trying to lay my "game" spitting every line So tell me why you stick around giving me signs? Lay it out..
Nothing's forever but we'll be alright

I can be your shelter you own undercover lover everyday
We will be together no matter whatever weather may come our way

I get that cold sweat, quick step in my feet
You get that pink cheek, cant speak when you see me
I think that we should get down
