Last night I saw the world around me stop
Like I was falling, there was nothing I could do When I saw your face in the crowded room, that's when I knew
Do you feel the same? Do you feel it too?

Finally I see things clearly
You're everything I'll ever need
Won't you stay, won't you stay with me

Too long I pushed away the thoughts I felt I'm done with hiding.
All I had to do was to step aside and find a way to let you through
Do you feel the same? Do you feel it too?

Finally I see things clearly
You're everything I'll ever need
Won't you stay, won't you stay with me

All the lies I trusted my heart and pride were busted
All attempts to feel at home
So sit tight and hold tight
Just never let me go

Won't you stay, won't you stay
