They're pretenders
Built up A silent wall
They're pretenders
They'll take you for all you got
And I see your face and all that I know
Follows me down to the line
They're pretenders
Are breaking your other mind
So I walk the streets alone
Waiting for a sign
I'm not coming home
Pretend that I don't mind
And is it only in my mind
Or am I seeing signs
And is it only in my mind
Or am I seeing signs

They're pretenders
Built up A silent wall
They're pretenders
They'll take you for all you got
And I see your face and all that I know
Follows me down to the line
These pretenders
Are breaking your other mind
Were in a race you know staying all the line
We are nothing more
Than the things we seem to hide
And is it only in my mind
Or am I seeing signs?
They're pretenders
Built up A silent wall
They're pretenders
They'll take you for all you got
And I see your face and all that I know
Follows me down to the line
These pretenders
Are breaking your other mind
Ohhhhhhhhhh|â€|â€|â€|â€|â€|â€|..
They're pretenders
