Do you regret
The mess you left?
The things you said
Got to your head
Can you shake this feeling?
Did we hit the ceiling?

You said some things
You shouldn't say
Too many things
Got in the way
You can't find the reason
You will see me leaving

All the things that you have done
All the things that you've become
I'm not here to play your games
You'll never change
All the times I stuck around
All the times you let me down
I'm not here to play your games
You'll never change

How does it feel
You broke the deal
You can't explain
Your selfish ways
What's the point in talking??
You should keep on walking

I can't believe
I didn't see
All of the things
You did to me
This will never be
Tell me now whats the point in talking it out?

All the things that you have done
All the things that you've become
I'm not here to play your games
You'll never change
All the times I stuck around

All the times you let me down
I'm not here to play your games
You'll never change

It didn't have to be this way
I know that you will never change
What you've become
Can't be undone

All the things that you have done
All the things that you've become
I'm not here to play your games
You'll never change
All the times you let me down
I'm not here to play your games
You'll never change
