Sending hopes far away
Nothing to feel of my way
We are finding the truth
Nothing really appears

Time will never elapse
Through the corridors' peace
Mama knows a way
Jobzynes are happy for you

Baltic oceans are pale
On the wings of a whale
Sorrow should never exist
Under the Musical bridge
Boulders show us the light
They follow the streams of the night

Forever knowing fate
Suns are eager to burn
Full of power they faint into the moody old shit

Opern your heart to me
Words will not be the tamed
Open the box of nights
The blues are within the night

Preludium:
No fears are our to keep
Oceans are never so steep
